Eagle Hi-Life
Fayette High School
Fayette, Ohio
Volume 51

The first day of school opened with the usual number of speeches, introduction of teachers, and handing out of the student handbooks.

Then scheduled classes were attended, and work (in some cases) started in earnest. Even some of the faculty were surprised at the willingness to work that some of the students displayed. Projects were planned, and fun was to be had during the noon hour, with everyone catching up on what happened to their friends during the summer. With such a good start, how did this first day of school end? Just the way days always end, with some watching the clock, and with others talking, but with everybody waiting for the final bell to ring.

I REMEMBER WHEN...

ALLEN BAILEY Mark painted the wall in shop and got me in trouble for it.

ROBIN BORTON The girls in Mr. Cronin's class covered up their legs with their coats on dress-up day and he got mad and left the room and didn't come back for the rest of the period.

DEB EAGLE The Pumpkin family parked across from the Hub Drive-In in Bryan to watch, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Lynne Pumpkin supplied the sound effects for the movie while the rest of the family tried to figure out the plot.

ERNIE HERNANDEZ While at the drive-in, Sheila, Debbie and Chris played football between the cars.

ANGELA HEXIMER There was a time just like now, when I couldn't remember a thing.

BRENDA HOCHSTETLER We had B-B fights in Psychology when Mr. Demerit went out of the room.

ISABEL JOSE On the first day of school in 1978, when I didn't know where the cafeteria was, so I starved all day. (And I was too shy to ask somebody!).

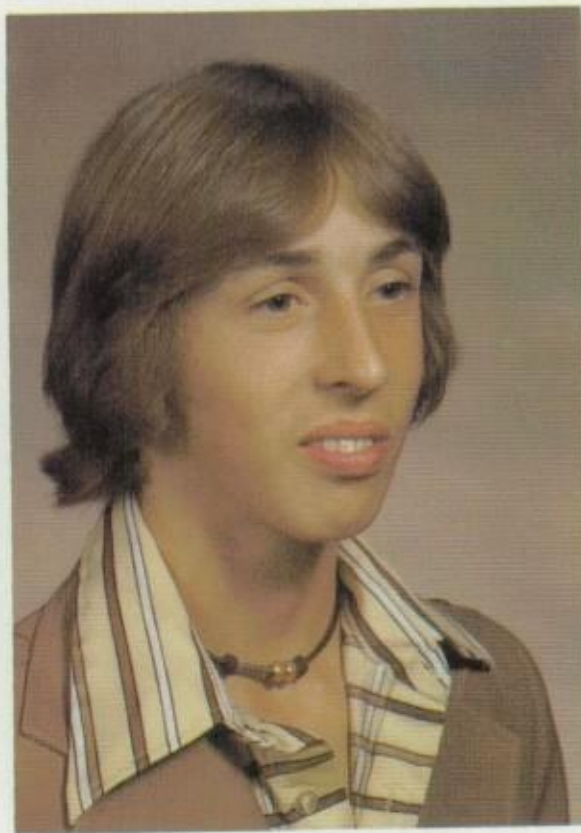

CAROL LEDYARD Cathy explained the dream about Julie marrying a certain guy in this class.

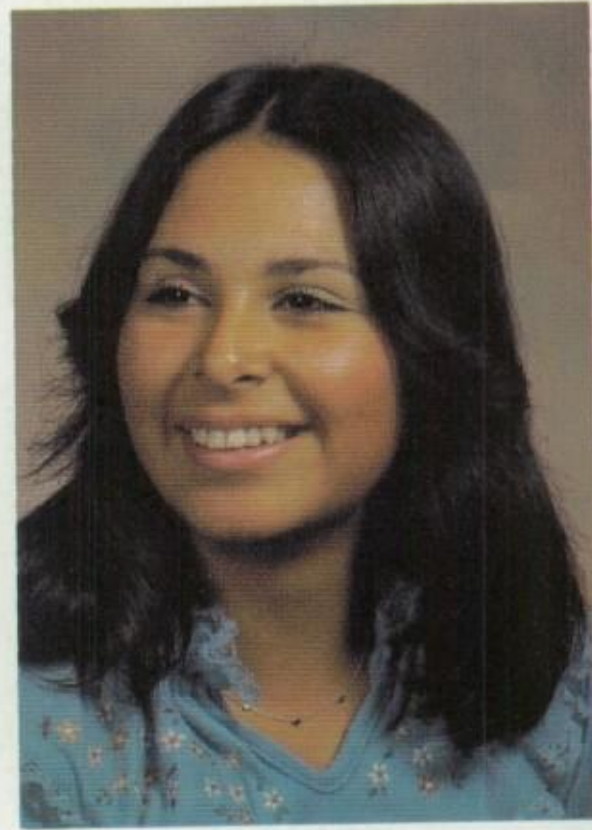

- GEORGIA LEONARD Ann, Nat, and I camped at the Lake over the 4th of July.
- NATALIE MITTON In sixth grade, Robin Schaffner, Ann Schrock, Kris Link, Holly Wilson, and I held our secret club meetings in the utility closet in the "old girls" bathroom
- SHEILA RANDALL Susan Clemensen started to strip down in 4th grade.
- CATHY RODRIGUEZ We ordered a pizza and a six pack of little cans and J. S. hogged them all.
- TINA ROTH Gretchen Wilson and me sneaked in workouts at Cross Country Camp.
- SCOTT SALLOWS K. B. did something to a Camaro full of girls after a baseball game.
- MARK SCHAFFNER Ray Ramsdell got mad when a lot of sophomore guys threatened to get a hit man from Detroit to come kill him. Ray replied, "Oh well, I could use a couple farms".
- JOHN SCHAFFNER There were a lot of fun times at the Junior Play.
- ANN SCHROCK Holly Wilson asked Mr. Dailing if he'd show her his muscles.
- JULIE SHORT A bunch of "wild and crazy" girls went to different towns with pumpkins on their heads.
- TIM SMITH Brian Towers broke his arm in the 6th grade. Everybody used to hide during winter behind the kitchen vent at Zone School.
- BRIAN TOWERS Richard Randall and Randy Schaffner put me in a gym locker for 45 minutes.
- MELODY WEAVER Mrs. Roth, our second grade teacher, put tape over Robin Schaffner's mouth.
- MIKE WHITE Deb Eagle was going to throw a water balloon at Mr. Hibbard and it broke in her purse.
- ANGELA WILSON Robin was at my house and a certain sophomore boy squirted her in the face with Vaseline Intensive Care Lotion, and it went in her mouth and was on her teeth.
- HOLLY WILSON I remember when Felicia Wilson wet on Natalie Mitton's nightgown.

"The Wild, Wild West"

It took a lot of time, effort, hard work, and expense on the part of the juniors to make the junior-senior prom a success. Based on the theme "The Wild, Wild West", they transformed the gym into an old western town, with the lobby being a saloon where drinks (soda pop) and chips were served during the dance. With a movie, as well as bowling throughout the rest of the night (which according to the chaperones, was very long) the prom ended with a good breakfast sponsored by the seniors.

"Get Smart"

It took a lot of hard work, effort, and time to turn the senior play "GET SMART" into the success that it was.

Scott Sallows (chief of the good guys) talks to Tina Roth, his secretary.

Mike White (Mr. Bigs), head of CHAOS and his chinese servants (Robin Borton, Nat Mitton, Cathy Rodriguez) plan something evil.

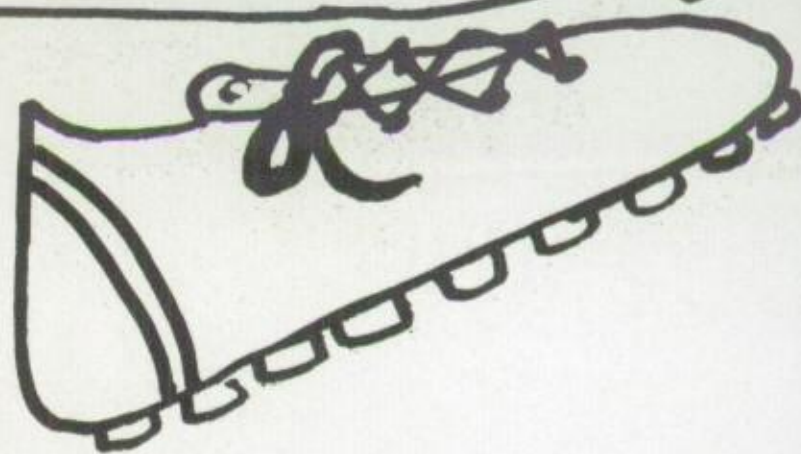

Right: Angela Heximer and Carol Ledyard, two "students" help test the professor's new invention. Middle Left: Julie Short hides under the table while Melody Weaver and Isabel Jose (two other students) wheel it in. Middle Right: Melody Weaver, Angela Heximer, and Deb Eagle become three "worried" kidnapped blondes. Bottom Left: Brent Heximer, a good guy, is protecting Angela Wilson, a professor, while Julie Short, another GOOD GUY helps. Bottom Center: Max Smart talks to the Chief on his shoe phone while Ann Schrock watches.

Now it's time to look forward to another year. To the seniors who won't be coming back next year we say goodbye and good luck. But though we say goodbye, it is not really goodbye, for we carry a piece of them with us in our hearts.

For the rest of us, it will be another year of change and growth. We will look back at this year, remembering the successes and failures, and wishing we could change some things, but knowing we can't. But even so, we can say in our hearts that this was a very good year.
